

The purpose of this publication is to share the fruits of Japanese language educational research, and to more widely propose Japanese educational subjects throughout the world. Contents include special reports regarding Japanese language educational teaching and papers by foreign students regarding Japan and their profiles. This publication is one of this center's activities for intercultural exchange.