

Kyoto Seika University Non-degree Students Program

The Kyoto Center for Japanese Linguistic Studies
Kyoto Japanese Language School

Those who are enrolled in our school in April, 2011 with College student visa status can register as ‘Kamoku tou rishuusei’ (non-degree students program) of Kyoto Seika University.

Non-degree students may register for courses up to a maximum of 12 credits in the faculties of design, arts and humanities at Kyoto Seika University per year.

Certificates of credit completion will be issued to the non-degree students who earned these credits. Students can be enrolled in the university as non-degree students up to one year.

*Applicants can be accepted into the course in a didactic manner rather than just practical subjects and foreign languages.

*It's possible to enroll in six month courses.

Applicants can utilize their time more effectively by using the opportunity to interact with Japanese students and teachers rather than study Japanese.

*Non-degree students can be concurrently enrolled at Kyoto Seika University as a non-degree student while they are enrolled in our school.

It's not possible to attend courses at Kyoto Seika University as a non-degree student after you have left our school.
